

Rothesay HIVE Membership Policy

The Rothesay HIVE membership will begin on January 1st, 2023. No person will be denied membership to the Rothesay HIVE because of inability to pay. The decision to grant membership in such circumstances will be at the discretion of the Department of Recreation and the Coordinator.

- A. All adults fifty (50) years and over may join the Rothesay HIVE Membership by completing the Membership Form.
- B. Each person must be a member to participate in the programs. However, events organized by the Department of Recreation such as the Speaker Series and most fundraising events are open to the general public as determined by the Department of Recreation.
- C. Trial Period: Guests may participate in the activities of the Rothesay HIVE for up to three (3) visits without taking out a membership. Including any programs and events that require registration. After which, they must register as a member to continue to access services.
- D. Membership dues for the term January 1 to December 31 are set by the Recreation Department. The membership should be informed of any dues changes in a timely manner.
- E. The membership dues are prorated so that the member pays only for the remaining months of the year based on the month they purchase their membership (-$2 per month passed).
